WELSCONNECTIONS

Serving young people with God's Word while they're in college is an important part of the work that WELS members join together to support. Learn more about WELS Campus Ministry in the June WELS Connection. In Forward in Christ, you'll meet Parker Lyden. His college roommate consistently invited him to church and campus ministry activities. When Parker finally attended, he discovered answers he didn't even know he was looking for (p. 18).

Discover results from a congregational poll about WELS worship practices (p. 11).

Three WELS members share how they incorporate personal time with their Savior into their daily lives (p. 7).

A new Bible study explores parables found in Luke's gospel, digging deeper into Jesus' stories (p. 32).

FIC & BREAKFAST

Men at Good Shepherd, Deltona, Fla., meet monthly for Bible study and good food at the Men's Bible Breakfast. The group uses Forward in Christ as the basis for its meeting, with Christopher Walther, pastor at Good Shepherd, e-mailing questions and encouragement to read the articles before their meeting. "During our study, we discuss the questions and anything else they found interesting in that month's issue," he says. Men of all ages attend. "There is something in [FIC] for everyone," says Walther. "It's a good mix of exegetical, doctrinal, practical, and even historical topics." Part of the group is pictured at the April study.
